

Chapter 10: A Visit to Mawlynnong

The Cleanest Village in Asia

City Life	Village Life

- Noise & Traffic - Malls & Cinema - Busy lifestyle	- Fresh Air & Greenery - Peace & Quiet - Close to Nature
[मराठी नोट: शहरातील आणि गावातील फरक]

Exam Tip

Remember the contrast!

Janvi usually loves city life but was impressed by the village.

Mawlynnong: The Star Village

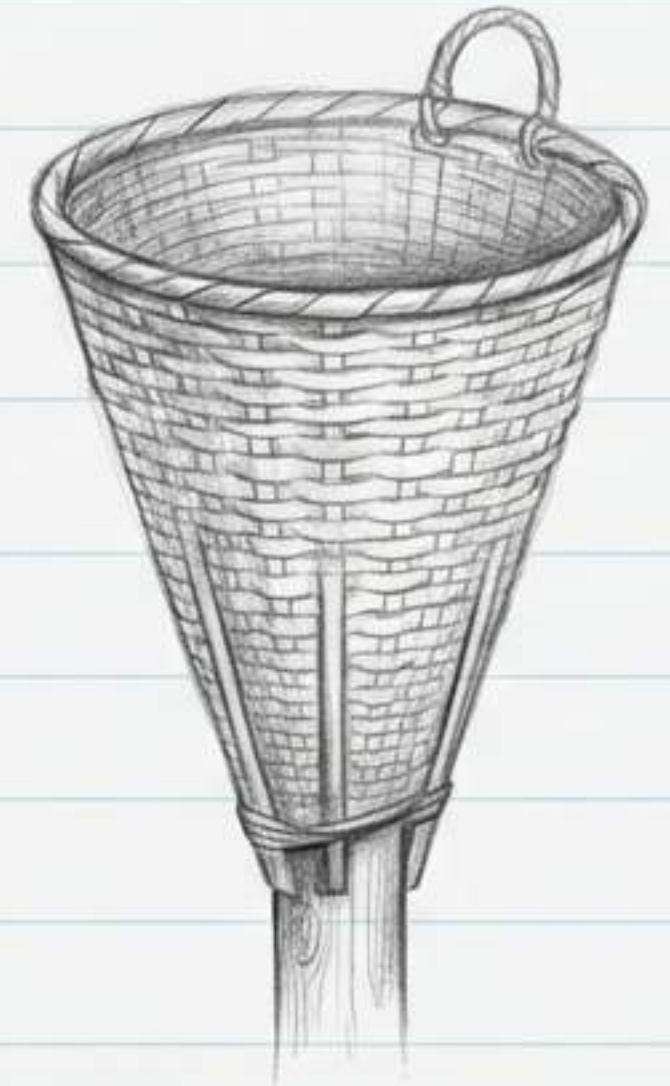

Declared Cleanest Village in Asia in 2003

[२००३ - आशियातील सर्वात स्वच्छ गाव]

- Spotlessly clean (No trash!)
- Villagers are warm and welcoming
- Thatched Huts (Roofs of dry grass)
- Gardens full of colorful flowers

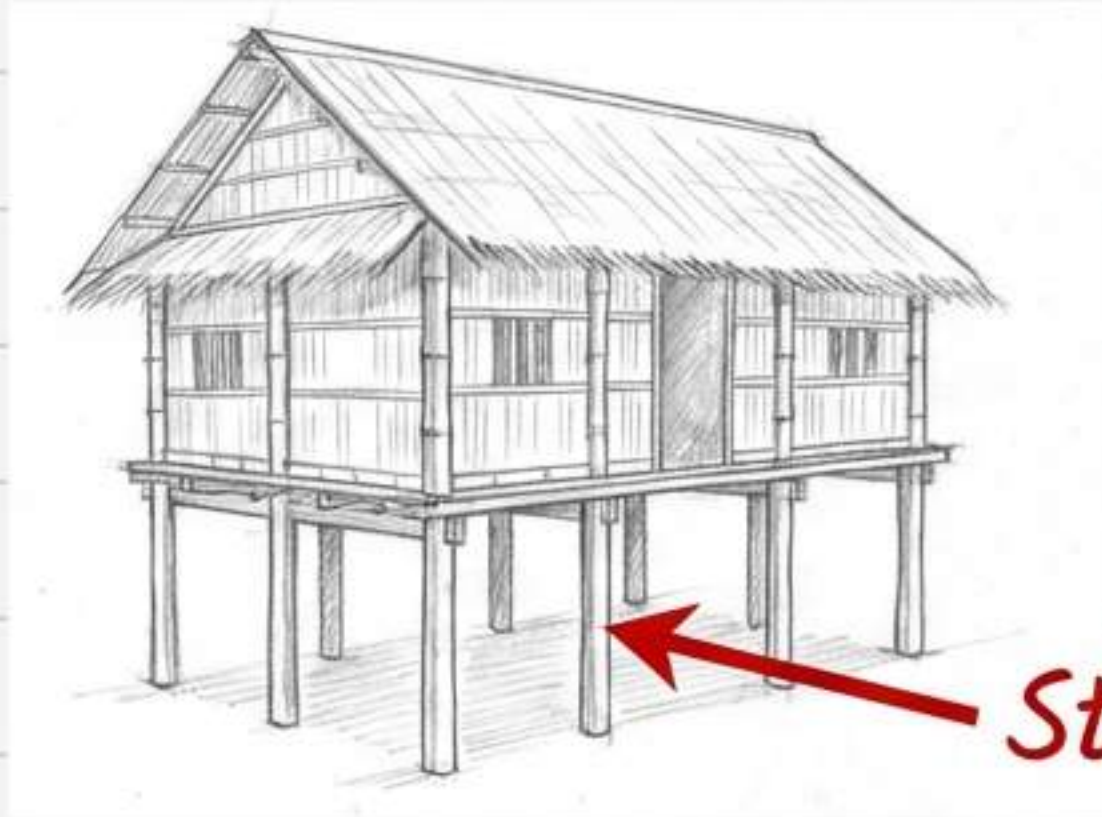

The Bin System:

Bamboo Baskets are kept outside every house to be used as dustbins.

Where did they stay? (Architecture)

Material: Bamboo

Posts that support a building high above ground.

[खांब ज्यावर घर उभे असते]

Machan

A platform erected in a tree.

[झाडावर बांधलेला मचाण / प्लॅटफॉर्म]

- Janvi ate lunch here & listened to a waterfall.

Memory Trick:

Stilts = Support

The Living Root Bridges (Important!)

Location: Around Cherrapunji

2. Use roots of big Rubber Trees
3. Action: Twisting roots across rivulets (streams)
4. Time: Takes decades to grow strong

[हे पूल खराच्या झाडाच्या मुळांपासून
बनवले जातात]

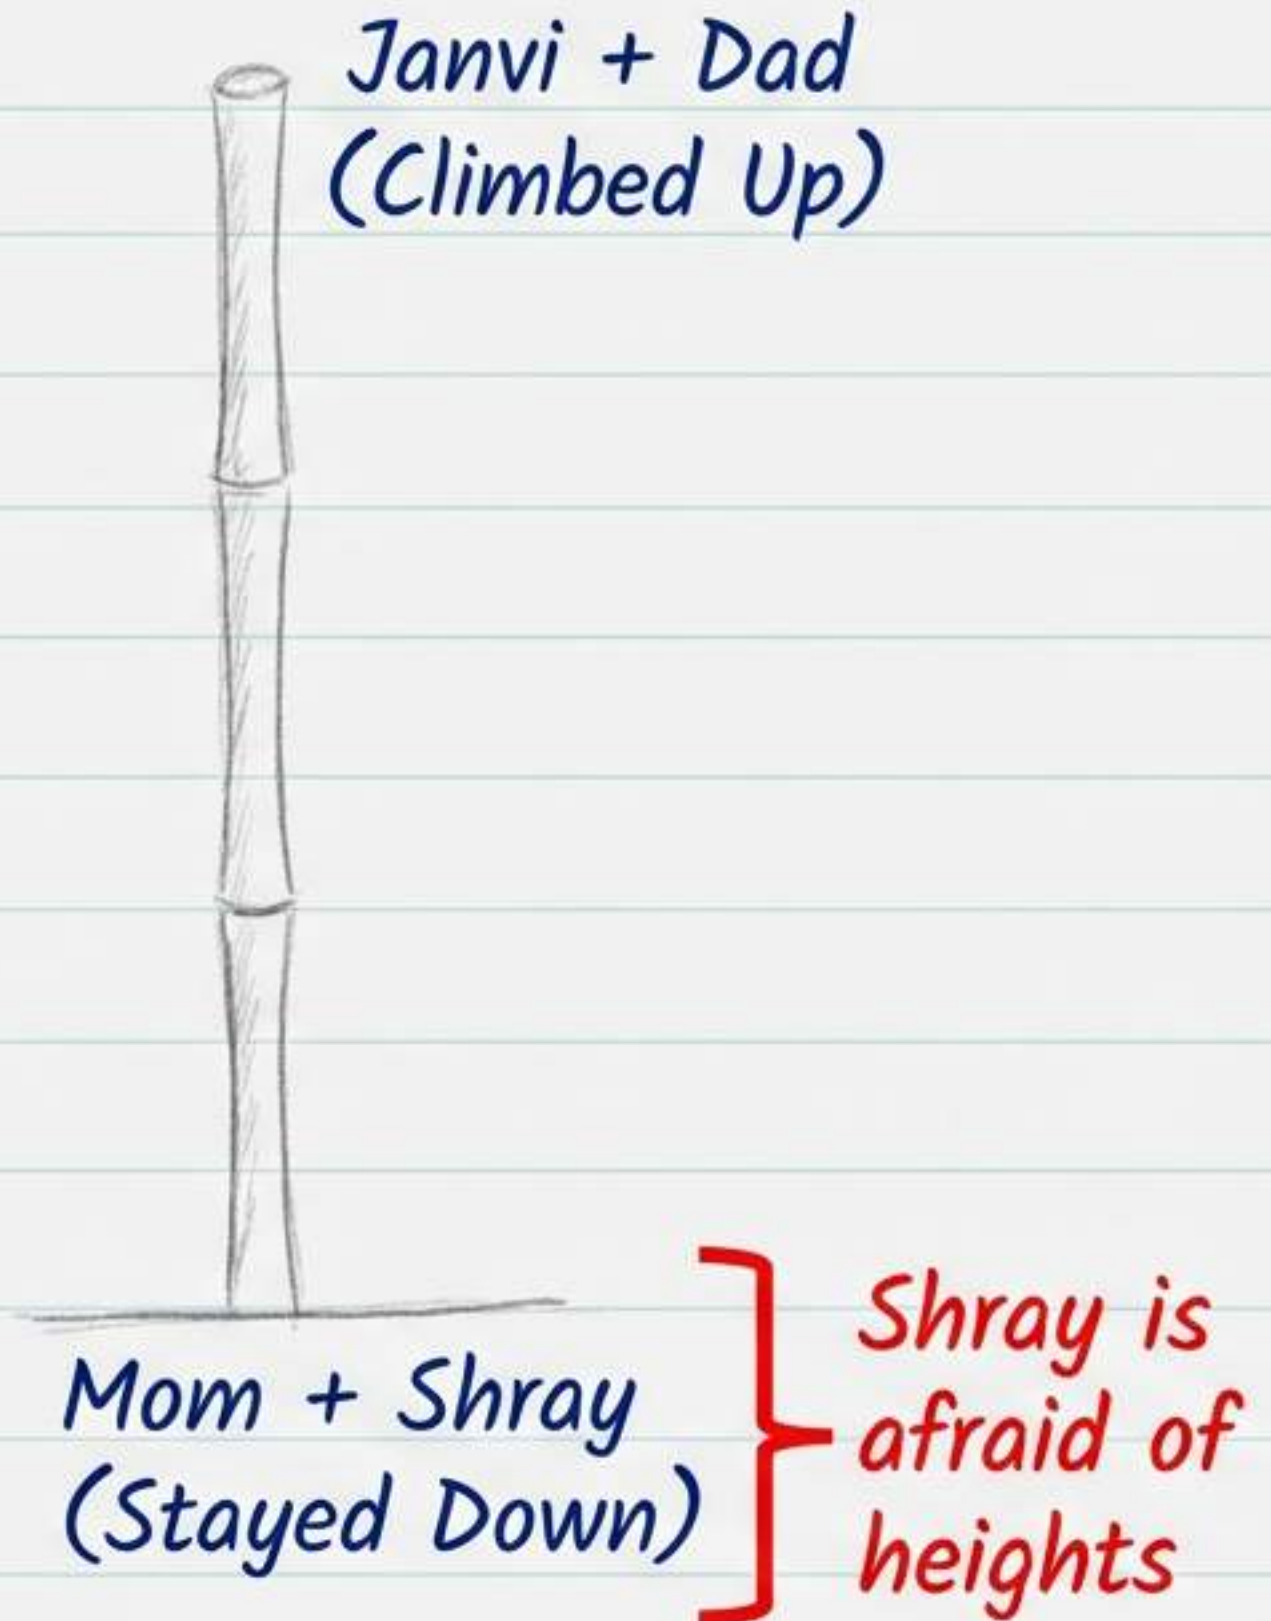

The Sky View Attraction

Structure: A high viewing tower made of Bamboo.

The View from Top:

- The Village & Rice fields
- Bangladesh plains (border view)

[येथून बांगलादेशाचे दृश्य दिसते]

The People & Habits

New Friend: Deity Bakordor (11 years old)

The Cleanliness Rule:

- Kids sweep village & empty bins before school.
- If a visitor drops trash? Locals pick it up.
- Deity says: Don't scold, just clean.
- It is a habit, not a punishment.

स्वच्छता ही एक सवय आहे

The Saturday Rule
