

Chapter 11: My Brother's Wheelchair

English Poem Study Notes

- Poet : Salil Chaturvedi (Activist & Writer)
- Narrator : Durva (The Sister)
- Main Character : Dhruvo (The Brother in the wheelchair)
- Core Theme : Inclusion, Sibling Love, and Fun!

He kavita
bhau-bahinichya premavar aadharit aahe.

Stanza 1: The 'Crazy Pair'

- The poem introduces the siblings.
- The poem introduces the siblings.
- Passersby call them a "Crazy Pair".

→ Why? Because they are loud, energetic, and constantly having fun ("Wheeeeeeeeeeeeeee!").

- They don't see the wheelchair as a burden; they see it as part of their play.

Exam Tip

If asked who the speaker is, remember it is the sister talking about her brother.

Lok tyanna 'Crazy Pair' mhantat karan te nehami majja-masti kartat.

Character Sketch: Dhrubo

- Creative: He paints his wheels in Blue, Yellow, and Maroon.
- Fun-loving: He ties balloons to the chair.
- Smart: The poet says he has "plenty of brains."
- Helpful: He helps Durva cross puddles when it rains.

Memory Trick: Remember the colors with "B-Y-M" (Blue, Yellow, Maroon).

Dhrubo khup hushar aahe ani tyala balloons avadtat.

Adventures: Park vs. Market

The Park (Evening)

- Action: Playing.

- Tool: Uses a
HORN.

- Purpose: To make people move out of the way.

The Market

- Action: A 'treat' (enjoyable trip).

- Tool: Uses a
REAR-VIEW MIRROR.

- Purpose: To see traffic behind him (Safety!).

Common Mistake: Don't confuse them!

Horn is for the Park. Mirror is for the Market.

Fun with Water (Nature)

Scenario 1: Rain

↳ Dhrubo helps Durva cross puddles.

Scenario 2: The Stream

- He takes his chair into a shallow stream. Durva gives the water a “good splash”.
- Reaction: Dhrubo screams with joy!

Tyanna panyat
kheyayla avadte.

Hiking the Hills

- Who goes? Durva, Dhrubo, Baba (Father), and Aai (Mother).
- Activity: Going for a Hike (Long walk).

- Equipment:

- Dhrubo puts on 'Special Wheels'.
- Comparison: They are like a Mountain Bike (thick tires for grip).

Exam Keyword: 'Special Wheels' → used for hills

The Grand Finale: The Champ

The Scene:

- Friends wait for their turn to ride the wheelchair.
- Pose: Riding with 'arms out wide' (Feeling free!)
- Nickname: Dhrubo is called the 'Wheelchair Champ' because he goes fast.

The Lesson (Important):

- Friends realize they need a RAMP at their houses so Dhrubo can visit.

Ramp = A slope used instead of stairs.

Mitra Dhrubo sathi ghari 'Ramp' banvayla tayar ahet.

About the Poet: Salil Chaturvedi

– Identity: Writer, Poet, and Disability Activist.

– Famous Works:

- Galli Galli Sim Sim (TV Serial – Sesame Street India).
- Shabduli (First Konkani book for visually impaired).

Why read him?

– He raises awareness about access for disabled persons.

Exam Tip: Memorize 'Galli Galli Sim Sim' – it's a popular show!

Word Meanings (Dictionary)

Wheeee!

1. Wheeeeeeeeeee!: Sound made to express enjoyment/thrill.

2. Baba : Father (common in Indian languages). ←

3. Aai : Mother (specifically in Maharashtra).

4. Hike : A long walk for pleasure / exercise.

5. Ramp : A slope / incline. ←

→ 'Aai' and 'Baba' show the Indian cultural context of the poem.

General Knowledge Facts (GK)

Fact 1:

- Kamala Kanta Nayak
- Record: Most distance traveled in a wheelchair in 24 hours.

Fact 2:

- Stoke Mandeville Games
- Significance: The first-ever Paralympic Games.
- Organizer: Dr. Guttman (in the UK).

Memory Trick : "Stoke" sounds like "Start" → Started the Paralympics.

Grammar: Rhyming Words

Words that have the same ending sound.
Words that have the same ending sound.

Pairs found in the Poem:

Play ↔ Way
Brains ↔ Rains
Hike ↔ Bike
Stream ↔ Scream

From the Textbook List:

Tree - Free
Tent - Bent
Train - Drain

Textbook Exercises: MCQs (Part 1)

1. The speaker is a young...

☐ Girl ☒ Boy ☐ Woman

Wait! Durva (Girl) is the speaker. Check teacher's key for the 'Boy' option.

2. The two children...

☐ Have fun together.

☒ Have fun together. (They are a 'Crazy Pair')

3. The boy likes to...

☐ Decorate his school.

☒ Decorate his wheelchair. (With paint and balloons)

Prashna neet vacha.

Textbook Exercises: MCQs (Part 2)

4. The boy gets people to move out of the way by...

☒ Blowing a horn. (Not shouting!).

5. A rear-view mirror is one that is...

☒ Used by the Driver to see Traffic behind.

(Context: Dhrubo uses this car part on his chair!)

Real-Life Connect (Values)

How can we support classmates with special needs?

1. Include them: Invite them to play, just like Durva does.
2. Adapt Games: Change rules so everyone can participate.
3. Be Helpful: Help with obstacles (like the puddles).
4. Friendship: Treat them as equals, not as "patients."

"We look different, but that's what makes us special!"

Final Recap (One-Shot Revision)

Important Mnemonic:

P-M-H (Park, Market, Hills)

Apangatva asunhi te aanandi ahet.

All the Best for Exams!

